

MAURY DRY GOODS CO.

FIRST PEEP INTO THE NEW THINGS FOR FALL

Our buyer in the East is sending us by fast freight and express every day the very latest creations in the new fall goods for Ladies, Misses, Children and Men. As fast as these goods arrive they are being placed on the shelves and in stocks for your inspection. We want you to come in.

The new Fall Silks, in large stripes and plaids. Price per yard $1.75 $2.00 $2.50 & $3.00
New Wool Dress Goods for fall in Gaberdines, Satin Gaberdines, Serges and Broad Cloth, 50c to $3.00

Corsets

The new Corsets for fall and winter are here. We are showing the new R. & G., Royal Worcester and Bon Ton Corsets at

$1.00

TO

$5.00

Fall Millinery

The new Felt Sport Hats in green, purple, gold, etc. for early fall wear are ready for you and they are darlings. Prices $1.00 $5.00

Men's Hats

We are showing the new Knox Hats for fall in pearl greys, iron stone, Knox green, champagne, modes, Quaker greys, pea greens and blacks. Prices $3.00 to $3.50

MEN'S SHOES

In the famous Men's lines Hanan and Crossett. Famous the world over.

Hanan Shoes at $6.00 $6.50 & $7.00
Crossett Shoes from $3.50 to $6.00

Specials for Saturday and Monday

One lot of remnants in Silks, Voiles and Muslins. Specially priced for these two days. We have just received another case of seconds of Percales, per yard 12c

YOU ARE ALWAYS WELCOME AT OUR STORE.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Sara B. McKissick, of near Spring Hill, is visiting relatives in the city.

E. L. Morrow, one of the progressive citizens of the Isom neighborhood, was in Columbia Thursday.

Miss Carrie Alexander returned Thursday evening from an extended Eastern tour, having visited Washington, Philadelphia, New York City, Montreal, The Lakes, Niagara Falls and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Claiborne T. Harris, of Iuka, Miss., are visiting relatives at Glendale.

R. A. Dugger, of Stiversville, was in Columbia Friday.

Misses Eva and Louise Patterson of Nashville, are the guests of Misses Nell and Mary Grant.

Frank E. West, an efficient member of The Herald staff, will leave next week on his vacation.

Miss Annette Blackburn, of Atlanta, is the attractive guest of Miss Eleanor Frierson.

Misses Narcissa Fleming and Lottie Smith are the house guests of Miss Carmen Park, at Culleoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Amis Timmons leave today for Primm Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Frierson, of Birmingham, and their grandson, Master Dan McDonough, are visiting W. P. Morgan at Oakleaf.

John M. Hunter, member of the county court of the Fourth district, has returned from a visit to relatives in Hickman county.

Miss Emma Sowell, of Anderson Bros. & Foster, has returned from her vacation and is back at her place of business.

Mrs. Burke Wilkes, of Culleoka, has returned to her home, after a visit to her mother and sister, at Zion.

Mrs. Charles A. Rozell, of San Francisco, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Figuers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cummins have returned from a two weeks' stay at Primm Springs.

Charles Augustus Wright, of Little Bigby Farm, is back from a trip West and North.

Miss Mamie Giddens is the guest of Mrs. J. T. Davis, at Lytle Creek farm.

Miss Elizabeth Jones spent Sunday in Mt. Pleasant, with relatives.

Mrs. Warren, of Hubbard, Texas, is the guest of Miss Josie Kinzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holman, of Nashville, were guests of J. L. Chalm.

berland and family at Sawdust Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Edmiston, of Franklin, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hervert Morrell, at Sawdust Valley.

Miss Mary Duke is the attractive guest of Mrs. Joe T. Wilkes, of Sawdust Valley.

Mrs. Williams, of Texas, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Sargent, at Sawdust Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Blackwell are at Beaver Dam Springs.

Prof. William L. Seagraves, of the Broadway section, was in Columbia Monday.

Mrs. T. C. Brooks, of Hampshire, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Work, at Dickson, Tenn.

Mrs. George Park spent Monday at Dark's Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Goad, of Birmingham and Steve E. Goad, of Detroit, Mich., came home to attend the annual reunion held by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Goad, at McCain's.

Misses Louella Wilson and Lillian Jones, of Nashville, are the attractive guests of Misses Della and Luby Hays, at Bridgeview Farm, on the Nashville pike.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ruhm, of Buffalo, New York, are the guests of Mrs. Mary Watkins.

W. S. Parks, of the Tenth district, was among the visitors to Columbia on Monday.

Mrs. Laura Jones is visiting friends near Glendale.

Misses Annie Louise Speed and Irene Hicks and Billie Grey and Boyd Dean have returned from Howell, Tenn., where they attended a house party given by Miss Irene May Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Allen have returned from a stay at Primm Springs.

Mrs. Frank Flowe, of Williamsport, was in Columbia today shopping.

Miss Lillian Walker, of Selma, California, is the guest of Mrs. J. L. Walker.

Miss Olive Rogers, of Florence, Ala., and Miss Mary D. Warfield, of Oklahoma City, Okla., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McLemore for the past week.

Judge W. B. Turner has returned from an extended trip to Chicago and other points in the Middle West.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Caldwell and little son, of Tulsa, Texas, are visiting W. A. Caldwell and family on the Nashville pike and relatives at Thompson Station.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Dortch and three children have returned from Dawson Springs, Ky.

Clarence Joyce left Wednesday to spend several days at the Lincoln County Fair, at Fayetteville.

Misses Fannie Garber and Bessie Sowell are in the markets buying fall millinery for the store of P. Garber.

Mrs. Jesse Tomlinson has returned from a visit to her children, Mr. and Mrs. Pride Tomlinson, in Washington City.

Mrs. Mary Padgett Grant and Mrs. L. P. Padgett have returned from Primm Springs. Mrs. Hazle Padgett, of Nashville, who was at the springs returned to Columbia with them.

Mrs. C. W. Witherspoon, of Nashville, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Figuers. Mrs. Witherspoon formerly lived in Columbia and has hundreds of friends in the city.

Miss Mary Glenn McCaul, who has been the attractive guest of Mrs. Henry Arch Moore, at "Barrow-Moore Place," and who has been the recipient of many social attentions in Columbia, left today for her home in Columbus, Miss.

Wiley Warfield has returned from Beaver Dam.

Miss Mary Phillips Orr spent yesterday in Nashville.

Dr. William P. Moore, of Culleoka, was in the city on Thursday.

Miss Jessie Reese left Tuesday for Nashville for a visit to friends.

Mrs. W. K. Boardman is expected home this afternoon from Nashville.

Mrs. W. P. Boyd and Miss Mary Cooper Boyd have returned from Nashville.

Mrs. Edwin Jones, of Florida, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Eastin Littlefield.

Cannon Page has returned from a week's vacation in Cincinnati and Louisville.

Mrs. C. A. Farris has returned from Nashville, after a pleasant visit to her friend, Mrs. Hardy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Borum and little Miss Evelyn Borum are at Red Boiling Springs.

Misses Rebecca Erwin and Lillian Watkins attended the Culpepper revival in Mt. Pleasant, last week.

Miss Anne Louise Latta, Miss Elfred Reynolds, Misses Mary and Leslie McCarty attended the Fair Hop at Fayetteville last night. They were chaperoned by Mrs. Sam Holding and Mrs. George Reynolds.

PREPARED PAINT

Mound City Horse Shoe Prepared Paint covers more surface and is more economical than other mixed paints.

It Street, Martin & Vaughan Co.

SOCIETY.

Porch Rook Party.

Miss Wilmoth Dinning entertained Saturday morning at a porch rook party in compliment to her house guests, Misses Margaret and Mary Hughes, of Spring Hill. The large porch of the Dinning home was beautifully decorated in potted plants, ferns, cut flowers and gift bouquets. The mid-summer color scheme of red, green and yellow was most artistically carried out in the decorations and refreshments. After an interesting game of rook at four tables delicious refreshments were served.

Family Reunion.

The home of Mrs. Rowena Moore, at Glendale, was the scene Friday of one of the happiest family reunions that has been celebrated in this section in many years. The children of the late Dr. and Mrs. Giles T. Harris, their children and grandchildren, assembled at the home of Mrs. Moore and enjoyed a sumptuous dinner and spent a most delightful day. The older people spent the day in reminiscences and talking of what they hoped to be in the future, while the children ran wild, so to speak, among the beautiful flowers and shade trees. Those present were Mrs. Moore and family, Miss Molly Harris, and Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Harris and family, of Iuka, Miss.

Fields-Daimwood.

William H. Fields and Miss Myrtle Daimwood were married Thursday evening at 8 o'clock by Dr. Patton, of Santa Fe. After the wedding the bride and groom motored through to Santa Fe, where they will make their future home. Both are well known in this section and have many friends who wish them a happy and prosperous future.

Entertain Epworth League.

Misses Josie Kinzer and Lou Willie Chamberlain entertained on Friday at a lawn party for the Mt. Nebo Epworth League. They were assisted in receiving by Misses Ola Hughes and Nola Chamberlain. Punch was served by Miss Kinney Elizabeth Kinzer, under a lovely vine-covered arbor. Fortunate telling was one of the enjoyable features of the occasion. A delicious ice course was served. The league colors, yellow and white, were artistically worked into the ices and decorations.

Warfield-Flowe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson, of Williamsport, announce the previous marriage on August 1st, 1916, of their daughter, Mrs. Mary Robinson Warfield, to Dr. R. Frank Flowe, of Davidson, North Carolina. The ceremony was said at Charlotte, North Carolina, by the pastor of the Presbyterian church, of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Flowe will make their home in Kannapolis, N. C., after November the first.

Mrs. Flowe was formerly Miss Mary Harte Robinson, of Williamsport, one of the most charming young ladies of the county and during her school days at the Columbia Institute became quite a favorite in Columbia society, graduating from this institution in 1911. Mrs. Flowe has many friends in the county who will be surprised as well as pleased to hear of her new happiness.

Dr. Flowe is a prominent young physician at Kannapolis, N. C. and is prominently connected in that state.

Dance At Nashville.

A number of the younger social element of the city, attended the dance given Monday night at the Hippodrome in Nashville, by the young men of that city. Smith's Saxophone orchestra furnished the music by which the couples danced until a late hour.

For Visitors.

Complimentary to her attractive visitors, Misses Mary Z. and Ruth Sowell, of Columbia, Miss Lady Love Ewells entertained at rook on Saturday at her home at Culleoka. The home was beautifully decorated in the flowers of the season and at the conclusion of the game a delicious ice course was served.

House Party.

Misses Della and Luby Hays are the attractive hostesses this week at a house party at their charming country home, "Bridgeview Farm," on the Nashville pike. In the party are Misses Louella Wilson and Lillian Jones, of Nashville; Edward Wilson, of Nashville; Wade Cathey, of Columbia, and John Bryant, of Bryant Station. The party will be joined later on in the week by Misses Bessie Lee and Mary Billington, of Culleoka.

Home-Makers' Club.

On Wednesday last, the Home-Makers' Club, at Isom, was entertained by Mrs. Tolbert Sparkman. On entering the guests were served with frappe, after which some time was spent in their reception.

The meeting proved to be a profit-

MULES AT AUCTION

On Monday, September 4th, (First Monday)

We will sell at public auction at our barn in Columbia

Thirty Head of Good Young Mules

Yearlings, Two-year-olds and Threes and a few pairs of extra good Four-year-olds.

We will also have for sale privately, in pairs or as a bunch thirty head of the best mule colts that money will buy, and ten good work mares, well broke, four to six years old.

We are in the market all the time for war mules, 14 1-2 hands and up, and will buy or will swap for any class of stock you have.

R. F. Moore & Son

ble one, on account of the instructive papers which were read. Mrs. G. O. Kirk's article, "The Disease of Chickens," was very instructive, as was Mrs. Wiley Jones' "Helpful Hints." At the conclusion of the program a general discussion took place.

The social committee reported plans for a fish fry for the club members and their families, which will take place in September. Delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. The next meeting of the club on September 13, will be with Mrs. S. W. Kirk.

Dance At Fayetteville.

A large number of the young people of the city attended the annual fair dance at Fayetteville Wednesday night. The affair was one of the most pleasing ever given in Lincoln county.

Birthday Party.

Mrs. Felix M. Ellett was hostess of an elegant dinner at her home in Mt. Pleasant, last Thursday. The occasion given in honor of Felix Mortimer Ellett, Jr.'s fifth anniversary.

At high noon a tempting menu was served, the dining room was very attractive with tulle, vases of LaFrance roses and pink candles. On the centerpiece of rich lace stood the beautiful birthday cake, pure white, a specimen of rare beauty, adorned with a dozen perfect pink carnations and five pink tapers gleamed from crystal sticks.

Eight guests enjoyed the dining and wished the handsome young son of Mrs. Ellett many happy returns.

Vincent-Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Allen gave in marriage their daughter, Annie Lee, to Mr. Reasley W. Vincent, Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock.

The Rev. J. S. Henley officiated and the ceremony took place at the Allen home, near Williamsport, in the presence of the two families and a limited number of friends. Miss Elizabeth Russell played the wedding music and during the ceremony she played softly, "Somewhere I Hear a Voice Calling."

The house was artistically decorated with vines, ferns and a profusion of cut flowers. The Epworth League colors, yellow and white, being used and sharks from the jump."

throughout. The bride was an appreciated member and president of the league at Williamsport.

The bride and groom entered together and the ceremony was said before an improvised altar under a beautiful wedding bell. The bride was lovely in a traveling suit of champagne silk, with accessories to match.

A valuable collection of presents attested the popularity of the young couple.

The wedding register was kept by Miss Emma Ladd.

Mr. Vincent is a progressive young business man of Zellwood, Fla.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Vincent motored to Columbia and took the train for a northern trip. They will be at home to their friends at Zellwood, Florida, after September the first.

A Family Reunion.

A reunion was held at Mrs. C. D. Knight's near Culleoka recently, in honor of Mrs. Knight's children and grandchildren. Those present were Mrs. C. M. Cannon and two children, of Wheelerton; Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Walker, of Lynnvillie; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Knight and little son, of Culleoka; Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Knight and daughter, Miss Elsie, of Lynnvillie. All the children and grandchildren were present and a most delightful day was spent.

FOR SALE—400 goats as a whole on in small lots.—J. G. FLEMING, No. 2, Spring Hill, Tenn. Phone 119 F. 11 Franklin Ex. 23/2t&wklytt

FIELD WORK DE LUXE.

"The plowman homeward plods his weary way."

The reader put aside his volume of poems.

"Times change," he commented. "I see in Kansas they are taking hired hands to the harvest fields in taxicabs."

TOO MUCH CLASS.

"I don't hear of any large catfish or perch being caught."

"The season started too big, whales and sharks from the jump."

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

New Prices August 1, 1916

The following prices for Ford cars are effective on and after August 1st, 1916:

Runabout $345.00
Touring Car $360.00

f. o. b. Detroit

$24.80 Freight added from Factory

These prices are positively guaranteed against any reduction before August 1st, 1917, but there is no guarantee against an advance in price at any time.

All orders will be filled in the order that they are received, and any one contemplating buying a Ford had better give their order early.

FRY BROTHERS,

The House of Service
South Garden Street, Columbia, Tenn.

